

Fall 2010 Susan G. Komen Southwest Florida Internship:

Susan G. Komen for the Cure is the world's largest grassroots network of breast cancer survivors and activists fighting to save lives, empower people, ensure quality care for all and energize science to find the cures. The local Southwest Florida Affiliate is seeking a highly motivated and dedicated professional for a school credited internship position which includes a $500 stipend. The candidate must be a self-starter and enjoy working with people. This intern will work closely with the Executive Director.

Interns will be exposed to the workings of a non-profit organization. Duties may include, but are not limited to:

- Administrative duties
- Writing articles for our eblasts
- Writing press releases
- Assisting the Executive Director with campaigns and special events
- Maintaining social medias
- Designing flyers and other forms of publication
- Assisting in the preparation of the Komen Race® for the Cure Special Events

We are willing to tailor the intern duties to fit their learning goals.

This position is open, but not limited to, individuals seeking a Communications, Journalism, Public Relations or Public Administration degree. They must have excellent communication skills, be a self starter and able to generate new ideas.
